Recommendation: It is recommended that the State Board give public notice of its intent to amend Chapter 103.

Background: In 2008, detailed rules regarding seclusion (“time out” rooms) and restraint of students, including allowable parameters when a student is physically confined or detained, were added to this chapter. Item 1 contains a technical correction only. Iowa Protection & Advocacy has suggested amendments to the rules that the Department believes are in the best interest of students, and these are reflected in Item 2. The third item is based on a suggestion from the federal Office for Special Education Programs.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT[281]

Notice of Intended Action

Pursuant to the authority of Iowa Code section 256.7(5), the State Board of Education hereby proposes to amend Chapter 103, "Corporal Punishment Ban; Restraint; Physical Confinement and Detention," Iowa Administrative Code.

In 2008, detailed rules regarding seclusion ("time out" rooms) and restraint of students, including allowable parameters when a student is physically confined or detained, were added to this chapter. Item 1 contains a technical correction only. Iowa Protection & Advocacy has suggested amendments to the rules that the Department believes are in the best interest of students, and these are reflected in Item 2. The third item is based on a suggestion from the federal Office for Special Education Programs.

An agencywide waiver provision is provided in 281—Chapter 4.

Interested individuals may make written comments on the proposed amendments on or before October 26, 2010, at 4:30 p.m. Comments on the proposed amendments should be directed to Thomas Mayes, Legal Consultant, Bureau of Student and Family Support Services, Iowa Department of Education, Third Floor, Grimes State Office Building, Des Moines, Iowa 50319–0146; telephone (515) 242–5614; E–mail Thomas.Mayes@iowa.gov; or fax (515) 242-6019.

These amendments are intended to implement Iowa Code sections 256B.3 and 280.21.

The following amendments are proposed.

Item 1. Amend subrule 281—103.6(5), as follows:

5. The period of detention or confinement is reasonable, considering the age, size, and physical and mental condition of the student subject to confinement and detention, and not in excess of the hours in a school day as defined by local board policy or rule; however, reasonable periods of before– and after–school detention are permissible. If a period of physical confinement or detention exceeds the shorter of sixty minutes or the school's typical class period, staff members shall evaluate the continued need for physical confinement and detention, shall obtain administrator (or designee) approval for any continued confinement and detention ~~beyond the~~

~~initial periodic reevaluation~~, and shall comply with any administrator (or designee) directives concerning any continued confinement and detention;

Item 2. Amend rule 281—103.8(280) by adopting the following new subrules:

5. An agency covered by this chapter shall investigate any complaint or allegation that one or more of its employees violated one or more of the provisions of this chapter. If an agency covered by this chapter determines that one or more of its employees violated one or more of the provisions of this chapter, it shall take appropriate corrective action. If any allegation involves a specific student, the agency shall transmit the results of its investigation, including any required corrective action, to the parents of the student.

6. If any alleged violation of this chapter is also an allegation of “abuse” as defined in rule 281—102.2(280), the procedures in chapter 281—102 shall be applicable.

Item 3. Adopt the following new rule 281—103.9(280):

281—103.9(280) Relationship to federal law. If any subsequent federal statute, rule, or regulation imposes a scope, standard, or requirement that exceeds the scope, standards, or requirements of this chapter, any agency shall comply with the scope, standard, or requirement imposed by that subsequent federal statute, rule, or regulation.
