It also is the policy of this state to apply affirmative action measures to correct deficiencies in school district, area education agency, and community college employment systems where those remedies are appropriate. This policy shall be construed broadly to effectuate its purposes.
2. The director of the department of education shall actively promote fair employment practices for all school district, area education agency, and community college employees and the state board of education shall adopt rules requiring specific steps by school districts, area education agencies, and community colleges to accomplish the goals of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action in the recruitment, appointment, assignment, and advancement of personnel. Each school district, area education agency, and community college shall be required to develop affirmative action standards which are based on the population of the community in which it functions, the student population served, or the persons who can be reasonably recruited. The director of education shall consult with the department of administrative services in the performance of duties under this section.
3. Each school district, area education agency, and community college in the state shall submit to the director of the department of education an annual report of the accomplishments and programs of the district, agency, or community college in carrying out its duties under this section. COMMUNITY COLLEGES ACTIVITIES

As a state, the Iowa Department of Education (Department) continued its partnership with the National Alliance for Partnerships in Equity (NAPE) to develop a state level data “dashboards” to use in identifying equity gaps and to conduct technical assistance workshops to train educators and stakeholders on the use of the data dashboard. Some of these data elements are related to staffing and employment gaps at the colleges. NAPE has provided the state with a modified five-step Program Improvement Process for Equity implementation to support educational institutions and regional coordinators to identify and implement evidence- and research-based strategies to close equity gaps identified through the data dashboard training. Initial trainings and outreach from the Department has evolved from statewide preliminary trainings to regional, district, and institutionally centered activities.

Nondiscrimination statement (related to employment) guidance documents and best practices were revised and shared with the community college accreditation advisory committee in early 2017 and with colleges undergoing equity visits. New guidance will come out in 2018 based on continuing discussions with Office of Civil Rights and the colleges. The state’s community college equity review process is now aligned with the accreditation process for the community colleges, and this equity process was combined with two college accreditation visits in April 2017 and November 2017. The new alignment has ensured more timely reviews of community college EEO/AA policies and processes.

The 15 community colleges have worked on various EEO/AA practices in the past year.*

- All 15 colleges have implemented employment policy statements providing for equal opportunity to all persons in place and distributed to stakeholders. [281—95.4(1) & 95.6(2)].
- Fourteen colleges have assigned a coordinator of development and implementation of EEO/AA plans. [281-95.4(3)]
- Fifteen colleges have procedures in place for employees and applicants for employment to redress complaints of discrimination (e.g., grievance policy and procedures) [281—95.4(1)]
- Eleven colleges have periodic training for all staff who hire or supervise personnel on the EEO/AA principles. [281—95.4(5)]
- Twelve colleges have an EEO/AA action plan with quantitative and qualitative analysis of workforce underrepresentation and system for distribution of plan. [281—95.5(4&5)]
- Thirteen colleges conducted a workforce analysis to identify underrepresentation in major job categories. [281—95.3]
- Nine colleges have implemented numerical goals and timetables for reduction of underrepresentation in each major job category where it has been identified. [281—95.5(6)]
- Eight colleges have utilized systematic input from diverse racial/ethnic groups, women, men, and persons with disabilities into the development and implementation of EEO/AA plans. [281—95.4(4)]

Some community college EEO/AA accomplishments in the past year include:*

- Seventy-three percent (or 11 colleges) of the colleges have broadened or targeted recruitment efforts to meet affirmative action goals.
- Forty-seven percent (7) of the colleges have increased diversity of their applicant pools for posted positions.

- Forty percent (6) of the colleges increased the diversity of their applicant pools for posted positions.
- One-fifth of the colleges increased the advancement of personnel in job categories with underrepresentation.
- Twenty-seven percent (4) of the colleges trained staff who hire or supervise personnel on the principles of equal employment opportunities and the implementation of an affirmative action plan.

Some of the specific college strategies that have been implemented in calendar year 2017 include: focusing recruitment efforts through diverse publications or to diverse populations; adding online EEO/AA trainings; forming diversity council; added additional recruiting resources to increase diversity of applicants and hires; starting targeted recruitment through LinkedIn; hired a talent and acquisition development supervisor to lead diversity efforts; and established more frequent EEO/AA meetings for review of data and development of action plans.*

*Data is from a survey of human resource (HR) directors and/or EEO/AA Coordinators in December 2017.
