

The Janesville CSD is requesting the option of going virtual beginning November 10th. Our county numbers and our own absentee rate has continued to climb the past 8 school days to the point that we do not consider it safe and responsible to hold a large gathering of students here at school.