

District and nonpublic online courses

Online courses are offered by the District or Nonpublic School. Students will receive instruction in person and via online courses.

District or nonpublic school offers district-developed courses.

If online courses are not used for offer and teach note in CSIP via CASA. No waiver is required.

If the district is using online course for offer and teach, note in CSIP. (If using more than two online courses for offer and teach complete waiver).

District or nonpublic will use private provider curriculum.

Private provider must be on the list of approved private providers.

If the district is using online course for offer and teach, note in CSIP. (If using more than two online courses for offer and teach complete waiver).

Online courses for an entire school day are offered at the district or nonpublic school. Students will only receive instruction via online school.

Complete form for approval district developed courses for an online school.

Districts using a private provider must use a provider from approved list on the DE website